

Grow Your Professional Painting Career With The Larkin Painting Company!

www.larkinpainting.com

Apprentice Painter Job Opportunity

Do you have positive attitude, enjoy painting, care about people and their property, and demonstrate a willingness to learn and grow professionally? If so, then we are looking for a team member just like you—someone who is an emerging leader and is friendly, honest and reliable.

Ideal candidates should also have 1-3 years experience, excellent communications skills, a commitment to teamwork, want a long-term employment, and have the ability to travel within the MetroWest area to Greater Boston.

Skills Required: Prep including the ability to repair compounds, caulking and sanding; and finish painting skills including cutting, rolling, and brush techniques.

Competitive Compensation

We offer a salary range of $30,000-$34,000 a year, plus bonuses and benefits.

A Culture of Caring

We believe that painters are just as important as any other trade and we bring a culture of teamwork and caring to everyone.

Full-time Stability

Full-time means you won't have to worry about where the next job is coming from—we aren't seasonal. Instead, you can rely on our 20-year reputation and trust we will be around for years to come.

Advancement

From apprentice to master painter to crew leader—you'll have the opportunity to advance your career and compensation.

On-the-Job Training

No matter what level of knowledge you have, you'll receive free, on-the-job training from experienced painters so you can learn the skills you need to succeed.

Full-Benefits

We care about making in an investment in you—that's why we offer a full-benefits package, including bonuses, overtime, paid for vacation/sick/holidays, 401(k), health insurance, disability and workman's comp insurance.

How to Apply:

Please email your resume to: info@larkinpainting.com or call us at 508-740-6212. If qualified, we'll schedule an interview with you and hopefully be saying welcome aboard!

About Larkin Painting

Serving the Boston and MetroWest area, we bring over 20 years of professional painting experience and expertise to both high-end, residential homes and commercial properties. We take the time to ask the right questions and actively listen to our clients' needs in order to recommend the best painting solution to enhance the beauty of their property. Standing by our word, we bring teamwork, quality workmanship, and respect their property as if it were our own.